TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Our company purchased "New Life" liquid pothole fill, which was labeled "4 Seasons", last year to fill unsightly potholes in our parking lot. The product looks better today than the day we mixed and filled the pothole.

We have found that normally products look best at the initial time of use and then wear down from there. This hasn't happened with "4 Seasons."

We had not used this product before and found the directions understandable and the product itself easy to use. It works – we have no more potholes in our parking lot!

I would recommend "4-Seasons" as anyone's first choice in handling pothole issues.

Sincerely,

CEI ROOFING-TEXAS, LLC
